POTENTIAL IDEAS THAT CAN BE EXPANDED/MODIFIED

- *- We need to mention that you're back after the previous contestant you were paired up with (Freda Spirits) mysterious died before you even left the building. (Trying to throw people off your tracks) So you wanted to try again. See if you could find a relationship that might last slightly longer. [We definitely need to make mention of Freda's death in some capacity to set up Dee Monique's escape from her.]*
- Any lady wishing to donate to your clan, you're willing to donate back (with a wink)
- I brought plenty of juice for everyone. It's at the drink table where there is also someone providing entertainment by telling jokes. I'll tell ya, the Punchlines are a real killer.
- Maybe talk about your privileges as leader. You rake in tons of money and get to spend on various luxurious items (Examples: waterbed, private jet, etc)
- The perk of choosing you, you'll give them an entrance fee discount to your "clan" of like ONLY $1000. What a bargain and worth every penny.
- I expect you on your knees worshipping me
- Lose your temper in frustration and try to regain it to undo the damage.
